AT the Court at Kensington the 6th Day of September, 1739.

PRESENT,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This Day the Right Honourable Sir John Norris, Knight, Vice-Admiral of England, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

From the Imperial Army commanded by Marshal Count Wallis, Aug. 29. Our Flotilla consisting still of two Ships of War, a large Prahm, two lesser Prahms, two Frigates, and one smaller Vessel, were ordered to pass up the Danube, and take their Station where the West Arm of the River Temes falls into it; and we having Advice that on the 22d Instant they were come up as far as Bellegisch, on their Way to the said Station, where they are to lye to keep the Enemy from coming out of the Temes into the Danube, we broke up from Surtock and came on the 24th to Bellegisch, Count Wallis having ordered a Captain, a Lieutenant and 160 Men to post themselves on the Side of the Danube, and keep a Correspondence with the Flotilla. On the 23d General Schmettau arrived in our Army from Vienna, and on the 24th proceeded to Belgrade. On the 25th we lay still. At Night young Baron Muffling, Captain in the Regiment of that Name, and Adjutant to Marshal Wallis, went in a Bark with a Serjeant, six Soldiers and 70 Peasants, with Orders to go down the Danube to Belgrade, where the Men might be employed on the Fortifications, but not long after his Departure the Bark was attacked by some Turkish Saicks; several of the Peasants were wounded, and the rest with the Baron and his Men made Prisoners. On the 26th Marshal Wallis went to the Camp at Semlin to confer with the Prince of Hildsburghausen; at Ten a-Clock that Night Orders were given out that the next Morning at Day Break, nine Battallions and two Regiments of Horse should march towards Panosza, and before Noon they arrived at a new Camp marked out with the Danube in the Rear, Panosza on the Right and Semlin on the Left. The 27th at Noon General Thungen followed them with seven Battallions. The 28th all the rest of the Army marched from Bellegisch and encamped at Panosza, where we still continue. We learn from Belgrade, that a Redoubt on the other Side of the Danube, over against the lower Town, being defended by 200 Men under an Officer who commanded last Year at Panchova, had stood three Assaults and a continual Fire of Bullets and Bombs, and holds out still with great Bravery. It is said General Schmettau going thither to view it, was wounded. The Turks having made great Shouts of Joy on the 25th after Sun-set throughout their Camp, all their Musick playing at the same Time; General Schmettau ordered all the Trumpets and Drums in Belgrade, to repair on the Morning of the 26th to the Gate called the Imperial Gate, and they stood there till Nine a-Clock, the Enemy not firing one Shot at the Town; whereupon three Shot were fired from the Town; and then the Enemy threw in 124 Bombs one after another; as often as their Bombs were fired, General Schmettau

Schmettau anſwered with Drums and Trumpets inſtead of Cannon. It is rumoured among us, that the Imperialiſts will make a Sally to Day upon the Beſiegers with the ſeven Battallions that came laſt into the Place. It is confirmed daily, that Proviſions are very ſcarce and extream dear in the Enemy's Camp. All the Officers who have been in Belgrade agree, that if the Turks do not attack it with much more Vigour than they have done hitherto, and if our Forces continue on the Save, the Place cannot be taken this Year: And as for the Turks making a general Aſſault without firſt making Breaches, as they have made none yet, 'tis what the Garriſon are not only prepared but wiſh for. Marſhal Wallis has recovered perfect Health.

Vienna, Sept 5, N. S. General Schmettau has the ſupreme Direction of the Defence of Belgrade, and comes and goes as Occaſions require, to and from that Place and the Army. He has taken Poſſeſſion of an Iſland in the Save, which is called the Gipſy Iſland, having put himſelf for that Purpoſe at the Head of ten Battallions drawn out of the Body under Marſhal Wallis, and of eight out of that under Prince Hildsburghauſen. Prince Charles of Lorrain is poſted with ten Battallions between Marſhal Wallis and Prince Hildsburghauſen.

Copenhagen, Sept. 5, N. S. The Daniſh Court return'd to Hirſcholm on the 2d Inſtant, and the next Day the Marqueſs d'Antin went thither with about 20 of his Officers, conducted by M. Lewenoren. As their Ships at the ſame Time fell down towards the Sound, the ſaid Officers came no more to this Place, but went on board at Elſenore. The Marqueſs d'Antin has been very well received here, and his Daniſh Majeſty preſented him with two fine Stone-Horſes.

Elſenore, Sept. 8, N. S. The four Sail of French Men of War, and one Frigate, ſailed from hence homewards laſt Sunday Morning at Six o'Clock, without ſaluting the Caſtle of Cronenberg, though they performed that Salute on their Arrival here.

Admiralty Office, Auguſt 1, 1739.

His Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to eſtabliſh certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commiſſion and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: Theſe are to give Notice to all ſuch Widows whoſe Husbands died on or ſince the 30th of Auguſt 1732, that Copies of the ſaid Rules and Orders are lodg'd with the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy at Chatham, Portſmouth, and Plymouth; as alſo with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerneſs; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinſale; where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the ſaid Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpoſe. But ſuch Widows as live at too great a Diſtance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Eſq; at the Admiralty Office, who will ſend them all neceſſary Information. And the Governors of the ſaid Charity intending to diſtribute to the Widows of ſuch Sea Officers who died before the 30th of Auguſt 1732, and whoſe Circumſtances come within the Rules of the Eſtabliſhment, their Share of the Bounty granted by Parliament; theſe are to give Notice of the ſame to all ſuch Widows, that they may procure the proper Certificates and Affidavits, and ſend or bring them hither. And the Court of Aſſiſtants do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at this Office on Tueſday the 11th of September next, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of ſuch Widows as ſhall be qualified according to the ſaid Rules and Orders.

Georgia Office, Weſtminſter, Aug. 28, 1739.

Whereas by the ſeveral Grants of Lands within the Colony of Georgia in America heretofore made by the Truſtees for eſtabliſhing the ſaid Colony, the Grantees therein named hold the ſaid Lands to them and the Heirs male of their reſpective Bodies; and the Truſtees taking into Conſideration, that it may be an Encouragement to the induſtrious Inhabitants of the ſaid Colony to extend their preſent Grants on Failure of Iſſue male, and to make a certain Proviſion for the Widows of ſuch Grantees, have therefore in Common-Council this Day aſſembled for that Purpoſe, Reſolved, That the Lands already granted, and ſuch as ſhall be hereafter granted, ſhall on Failure of Iſſue male, deſcend to the Daughters of ſuch Grantees; and in caſe there ſhall be no Iſſue male or female, that the Grantees may deviſe ſuch Lands; and for Want of ſuch Deviſe, that ſuch Lands ſhall deſcend to their Heirs at Law: And that the Widows of the Grantees ſhall have and enjoy the Dwelling-houſe, Garden, and one Moiety of the Lands their Husband ſhall die ſeiſed, for and during the Term of their Lives.

And Notice is hereby given to ſuch Grantees of Lands within the ſaid Colony, who are deſirous to have the Benefit intended to be given them by the ſaid Common-Council, purſuant to their Reſolutions of this Day, that they muſt enter their reſpective Claims, either at the Georgia Office near Old Palace Yard in Weſtminſter, or in any of the Town Courts in Georgia, within the Space of Twelve Months from the Date hereof, in order that proper Grants and Conveyances in the Law may be forthwith prepared and executed for that Purpoſe. And no Fee or Reward is to be taken for the entring of any ſuch Claim, directly or indirectly, by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever. Signed by Order of the ſaid Truſtees.

Benj. Martyn, Secretary.

South-Sea-Houſe, London, Aug. 31, 1739.

The Court of Directors of the South Sea Company give Notice, that the Transfer Books of Old South Sea Annuities will be ſhut on Wedneſday the 26th of September next, at Two a-Clock, and opened again on Wedneſday the 24th of October following; and that the Warrants for the Half Years Intereſt due at Michaelmas next, will be ready to be delivered and paid to the Proprietors on Wedneſday the 31ſt of the ſaid Month of October, on which Day the ſaid Transfer Books will be ſhut.
